

Aimee Elizabeth

From: Simon Gladdish
Sent: Wednesday, May 16, 2012 12:28 PM
To:
Subject: Poverty Sucks!

Dear Aimee

I am half-way through your magisterial tome and I already know that it's the best self-help book that I've ever read. When you wrote 'Are you a winner or a whiner?' I felt as though I'd been shot! Like a lot of people, I am rather prone to self-pity when things go wrong. I've also read a lot of useless self-help books which try to kid you that you can become rich simply by thinking positive thoughts. You, however, show us the real nuts and bolts of how to get on. I'm also very impressed by your life story and how you started out with absolutely nothing. I find that far more convincing than reading the history of some multi-millionaire who was already born into wealth. At the moment I own only one house with no mortgage but as soon as I can get my grubby hands on some capital, I'm planning on buying another. I'd just like to thank you for writing such a great book that comes straight to the point with no bullshit. I also love the dry humour that percolates up through the paragraphs. Although you are a 'born' businesswoman, I can also see that you are a good person and I hope that you do live to be a hundred and enjoy a very happy life.

Kindest regards

Simon R. Gladdish

P.S. Which star sign are you?